

SATANISM DEVIL'S ADVOCATE?

There are many misconceptions about Satanism and those that fall under its umbrella. I'm here to clear some of those major faults away.

THE CRIMSON TINTED GLASSES

When you hear satanist, your head no doubt thinks human sacrifices and devil worship

Many believe that Satanists like to perform ancient rituals and invoke the name of Satan, wringing great terrors upon our world.

Many think of these grand temples with elaborate symbols and statues in commemoration of satan and his underlings

Many think that Satanism is one of the weirdest/see it as the most taboo of beliefs

THE FACTS

But the truth is, there hasn't been a single instance of such a deed, and they help the world with such deeds as beach cleanups.

But in reality, they don't practice anything of the sort. Instead, they'd rather invite friends over to dinner and discuss practical things.

But actually, the church of satan doesn't have any kind of formal temple/meeting place.

But as it stands, it's actually probably tamer than Christianity. Pictured above is the deity of the "Pastafarians," the Flying Spaghetti Monster.

IN SUMMARY

Satanism has been given a bad rep in society all because some people couldn't live with a conflicting belief system to Christianity, they don't believe in, let alone praise any demons or evil spirits, and they aren't even close to the strangeness of some other beliefs.

REFERENCES

https://docs.google.com/document/d/1o1d9qrntf_7lk2_JHzCS11VBWh2rp9ogfxcIvBviAOK/edit?usp=sharing